Dear Mr. Waters:

The Publications Review Board has completed its review of your manuscript entitled Class 11 – America Responds to 9-11: Inside the Largest Spy Class in CIA History.

(b)(3) NatSecAct

As a result, the Board has determined that, in accordance with the terms of your secrecy agreement, the following information in your manuscript is inappropriate for disclosure in the public domain and must be revised or deleted prior to publication:

A copy of the edited pages is enclosed for your records.

After making the changes the Board requires, you must resubmit the manuscript for final Agency review. In lieu of resubmitting the entire manuscript, you may return only the affected pages or you may verify in writing that you have made all the deletions and revisions.

If you add material to or change the manuscript the Board has reviewed, you must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to your publisher or anyone else. Please mark or otherwise indicate the new material clearly so we can expedite our review. Additional items that require submission include but are not limited to photographs, photograph captions, illustrations, diagrams, tables, maps, or charts.

You must submit any additional galley proofs of the final manuscript, as it will appear in book form, so the Board can verify that the published version is the approved version. Your responsibility as the author is to ensure that the publisher releases only the Board-approved version. We will work promptly to complete this final review but please ensure that the publishing schedule permits adequate time for the Board to complete its work. The Board gives galley reviews high priority because it knows that authors and publishers have firm deadlines.

The Board encourages you to include the following disclaimer: "This material has been reviewed by the CIA. That review neither constitutes CIA authentication of information nor implies CIA endorsement of the author's views."

The Board is always pleased to purchase a copy of books published by former Agency employees. Please let us know when Class 11 is commercially available so we can add a copy to the Board's research library.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or if we can be of assistance.

Sincerely yours,
